Towards improving the alignment, predictability, flexibility and transparency of WHO’s funding and reducing its vulnerability
Current issues with reporting

- Results reported are not clear
- Reporting is not timely
- Reporting is based on self-assessment
- There are multiple forms of reporting for multiple audiences
  - Statutory reports for governing bodies
  - Individual reports for donor agreements
  - Bilateral reviews for state and non-state contributors
  - Individual programme, regional and country progress reports
Clear reporting

Investing in the World’s Health Organization
Web Portal will provide timely reporting on

- Programme implementation
- Progress towards achieving results
- Financing and expenditure data for all sources of funding
Independent assessment

New evaluation approach will provide

• Systematic independent reviews of programmes and leadership priorities

• Provide an opportunity for in-depth analysis of WHO performance and contribution to outcomes and impacts

• Evaluation planning linked to performance assessment reporting
Multiple reports

Need to identify ways to consolidate multiple forms of reporting for multiple audiences
