In the Low and Middle Income countries group the prevalence of VI prevalence is higher.

Higher countries/regions investments in health correspond to lower prevalence of visual impairment.