

Information on Campaign Activities for Dr. Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus,
Candidate for the World Health Organization (WHO) Director-General
Last updated 22 March 2017

In accordance with the B.II.3 of the Code of Conduct for the Election of the Director-General of the World Health Organization, candidates “should consider disclosing their campaign activities (for example, hosting of meetings, workshops and visits) and communication them to the Secretariat. Information so disclosed will be posted on a dedicated webpage of the WHO website.”

Dr. Tedros’ campaign is financially supported jointly by the Ethiopian Government and the East Africa Campaign Fund. The East African Campaign Fund is a solidarity fund established with contribution from East African Governments to support the campaign of Dr. Tedros, who is a unified African candidate endorsed by the African Union for the post of Director General of WHO. This campaign fund is based in Kigali, Rwanda.
