If someone in your family has diabetes, you may have it too. Diabetes and its complications can be prevented. Be informed, know the risks and follow your health provider's advice.

Get in the circle.