SPECIAL PROGRAMME OF RESEARCH, DEVELOPMENT AND RESEARCH TRAINING IN HUMAN REPRODUCTION: MEMBERSHIP OF THE POLICY AND COORDINATION COMMITTEE

The Policy and Coordination Committee (PCC) is the governing body of the Special Programme of Research, Development and Research Training in Human Reproduction. The Committee presently has 33 members in four categories. Category 2 is composed of Member States elected by WHO regional committees for three-year terms; at present, there are 13 elected Member States. Under this category, the Western Pacific Region has been allocated three members. Currently, those members are Fiji, Papua New Guinea and the Philippines. The term of office of Papua New Guinea will expire on 31 December 2018. The Regional Committee is therefore requested to elect one Member State to represent the Region under Category 2 for the three-year term from 1 January 2019 to 31 December 2021.
1. CURRENT SITUATION

The Special Programme of Research, Development and Research Training in Human Reproduction is a global programme of international technical cooperation initiated by WHO to promote, coordinate, support, conduct and evaluate research in human reproduction, with particular reference to the needs of developing countries.

The Policy and Coordination Committee (PCC) is the governing body of the programme. It coordinates the interests and responsibilities of the parties cooperating in the programme, and is responsible for reviewing and deciding upon the planning and execution of the programme. The structure and functions of PCC are defined in Annex 1.

The Committee has 34 members in four categories of membership. Presently, there are 33 members in the four categories.

(1) Category 1 is composed of 11 government representatives from the countries that were the largest financial contributors to the Special Programme in the previous biennium.

(2) Category 2 is composed of 14 government representatives from Member States elected by WHO regional committees for three-year terms, according to population distribution and regional needs. In electing members, regional committees are asked to consider a country's financial and/or technical support to the Special Programme as well as its interest in the development of sexual and reproductive health research and services, as demonstrated by national policies and programmes. Currently, there are 13 members under Category 2. The Western Pacific Region has been allocated three members.

(3) Category 3 is composed of two members elected by PCC for three-year terms from the remaining cooperating parties.

(4) Category 4 is composed of the cosponsors of the Special Programme, the International Planned Parenthood Federation and the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS, which are permanent members.
Members of the Committee under categories 2 and 3 may be re-elected.

The participation of Member States from the Western Pacific Region under Category 2, from 1986 onwards, is shown in Annex 2.

2. ISSUE

The term of Papua New Guinea will expire on 31 December 2018. In order to fill the vacancy under Category 2, effective 1 January 2019, the Regional Committee for the Western Pacific must elect, at its sixty-ninth session, one Member State to serve the three-year term from 1 January 2019 to 31 December 2021.

3. ACTION PROPOSED

The Regional Committee for the Western Pacific is requested to elect one Member State under Category 2 to serve for a three-year term from 1 January 2019 to 31 December 2021.
POLICY AND COORDINATION COMMITTEE

The Policy and Coordination Committee (PCC) is the governing body of the Special Programme of Research, Development and Research Training in Human Reproduction.

2.1 Functions

PCC shall, for the purpose of coordinating the interests and responsibilities of the parties cooperating in the Special Programme, have the following functions:

2.1.1 To review and decide upon the planning and execution of the Special Programme. For this purpose it will keep itself informed of all aspects of the development of the Special Programme and consider reports and recommendations submitted to it by the Standing Committee referred to in Section 3 of this Memorandum (hereinafter called the Standing Committee), the Executing Agency and the Scientific and Technical Advisory Group referred to in Section 4 of this Memorandum (hereinafter called STAG).

2.1.2 To review and approve the plan of action and budget for the coming financial period prepared by the Executing Agency and reviewed by STAG and the Standing Committee.

2.1.3 To review the proposals of the Standing Committee and approve arrangements for the financing of the Special Programme.

2.1.4 To review proposed longer term plans of action and their financial implications.

2.1.5 To review the annual financial statements submitted by the Executing Agency, and the audit report thereon submitted by the External Auditor of the Executing Agency.

2.1.6 To review periodic reports that will evaluate the progress of the Special Programme towards the achievement of its objectives.

2.1.7 To review and endorse the selection of members of STAG by the Executing Agency in consultation with the Standing Committee.

1 The following is an excerpt from the Memorandum on the Administrative Structure of the Special Programme of Research, Development and Research Training in Human Reproduction (Document HRP/1988/1 rev. 2012).
2.1.8 To consider such other matters relating to the Special Programme as may be referred to it by any Cooperating Party.

2.2 Membership

PCC shall consist of 34 members from among the Cooperating Parties as follows:

2.2.1 Largest financial contributors: 11 government representatives from the countries that were the largest financial contributors to the Special Programme in the previous biennium.

2.2.2 Countries elected by the WHO regional committees: 14 government representatives from Member States elected by the WHO regional committees for three-year terms according to population distribution and regional needs, distributed as follows:

In these elections due account should be taken of a country’s financial and/or technical support to the Special Programme as well as its interest in the fields of family planning, research and development and in human reproduction and fertility regulation, as demonstrated by national policies and programmes.

2.2.3 Other interested Cooperating Parties: two members elected by PCC for three-year terms from the remaining Cooperating Parties.

2.2.4 Permanent members: the Cosponsors of the Special Programme, the International Planned Parenthood Federation and the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS.

Members of PCC in categories 2.2.2 and 2.2.3 may be re-elected.

2.3 Observers

Other Cooperating Parties may be represented as observers with the approval of the Executing Agency after consultation with the Standing Committee. Observers attend sessions of PCC at their own expense.
2.4 Operation

2.4.1 PCC shall meet at least once a year, and in extraordinary sessions, if required, subject to the agreement of the majority of its members. The Executing Agency shall provide the secretariat.

2.4.2 PCC shall elect each year from among its members, a chairman, a vice-chairman and a rapporteur.

2.4.3 The Chairman shall:

- convene and preside over sessions of PCC;
- undertake such additional duties as may be assigned by PCC.

2.4.4 Subject to any special arrangements that may be decided upon by PCC, members of PCC shall make their own arrangements to cover the expenses incurred in attending sessions of PCC.

2.5 Procedures

2.5.1 In its proceedings PCC shall be guided mutatis mutandis by the Rules of Procedure of the World Health Assembly.

2.5.2 In consultation with the Chairman, the secretariat shall prepare an annotated provisional agenda for each session.

2.5.3 A report, prepared by the Rapporteur with the assistance of the secretariat, shall be circulated as soon as possible after the conclusion of the session for the approval of participants.
