

WHO Indonesia
Emergency and Humanitarian Action (EHA) Section

Emergency Situation Report

Mount Talang

Reporting date

Monday, 18 April 2005

Type of Emergency

Increased volcano activity, potential eruption

Date of emergency incidence

Tuesday, 12 April 2005 at 3:42 am local time (20:42 GMT Monday)

Place

- Mt. Talang is Located around 40 km East of Padang City, Capital of West Sumatera Province
- Location is 1.0S, 100.7E, Elevation 2,896 meter

Background information on the incidence

- As of this morning, BAKORNAS and local officials report a general decrease in activity although volcano few sporadic bursts, has lowered alert level to level III.
- The Indonesian Meteorology and Geophysics board has warn people to avoid the ash fall-out zone around the peak and initialing the evacuation process of the mountain's slope

Population at risk

No	Status	Figures	Remarks
1	Casualties or deaths	-	None reported
2	Injured	-	None reported
3	IDPs	48,805 people*	from 7 sub-districts

IDP's

No	Emergency Shelter Area (Health Post)	IDPs
1	Rawang Kayu Elementary School, Gunung Talang Sub-District	1,520
2	Danau Kembar Sub-District Office	10,727
3	Alahan Panjang Market, Lembah Gumanti Sub-District	10,500
4	Nanam River Market, Lembah Gumanti Sub-District	3,500
5	Mandailing, Lembah Jaya Sub-District	1,658
6	Pakan Rabaa, Lembah Jaya Sub-District	3,892
7	Kubang Nan Duo, Payung Sekaki Sub-District	15,008
	Total	48,805

Health Visits (Cases)

No	Emergency Shelter Area (Health Post)	IDPs
1	Rawang Kayu Elementary School, Dunung Talang Sub-District	1,142
2	Danau Kembar Sub-District Office	1,523
3	Alahan Panjang Market, Lembah Gumanti Sub-District	1,359
4	Nanam River Market, Lembah Gumanti Sub-District	1,092
5	Mandailing, Lembah Jaya Sub-District	806
6	Pakan Rabaa, Lembah Jaya Sub-District	1,852
7	Kubang Nan Duo, Payung Sekaki Sub-District	11,845
	Total	19,19

- Illness most frequently found is Acute Upper Respiratory Infection (70%) and diarrhea (6%)

Damages

No	Status	Figures	Remarks
1	Public infrastructures	-	No reports of damage

Government Support

Central Government

President Susilo B. Yudoyono has visited area of IDPs; along with provincial government officials have made to carry out assessments.

Provincial Government

- Provincial Government deem that health care problems manageable by local health authorities.
- Coordination with the Satlak PBP, Solok District.
- There are 7 emergency shelter areas with the Main 'Posko' at the Bupatis' Government Office, in the Solok District.
- Health 'Posko' has been established in each emergency shelter area.
- Health staff at local Health centers, satellite Health centers and hospital have been alerted and ready.

- Health care is administrated and implemented in emergency shelter areas, with each visit averaging in assessing 205 people.
- Filter masks are in being stocked and distributed free of charge at all times.

WHO and MoH Support

PPMK (MoH) in cooperation with EHA (WHO) are maintaining communication and initiating preparation for health sector assessment and aid.

Map

Geographic location of the Mt. Talang. Image courtesy of the Landsat Pathfinder Project.

Photos

The following person can be contacted if more information is needed.

No	Name	Designation	Organization	Contact phone	Fax	E-mail Satellite Phone
1	Dr. Kyaw Win (Vijay Nath)	Medical Officer	EHA, WHO	021-5204349 0811933821	021-5201164	wink@who.or.id 086811020053
2	Prasetio Wicaksono	Health Information	EHA, WHO	08122793134		wicaksonop@who.or.id

Source of Information from Indonesia

Information is gathered from the following sources and may not reflect the actual true facts at the field level, but can be used as references.

1. PPMK (MoH)
2. Board of Meteorology and Geophysics
3. International and local news media

WHO Indonesia
Emergency and Humanitarian Action (EHA) Section

Emergency Situation Report

Mount Tangkuban Perahu

Reporting date

Monday, 18 April 2005

Type of Emergency

Increased volcanic activities, level III alert

Date of emergency incidence

Wednesday, 13 April 2005 at 15:02:00 local time

Place

- Mt. Tangkuban Perahu is located in the vicinity of Bandung, Capital of West Java
- Mt. Tangkuban Perahu (Location is 30 km north of Bandung, 2076m above sea level)

Background information on the incidence

- BAKORNAS and BMG report that volcanic activity have decreased, but is still carefully monitoring the volcano.
- Poisonous gas emitting and smoke rising up from volcano crater, although decreasing is still being reported.
- The Indonesian Meteorology and Geophysics Board still bans the crater area off-limits to all people.
- Alert level is still at level III (prepare), and is being monitored.

Population at risk

No	Status	Figures	Remarks
1	Casualties or deaths	-	None reported
2	Injured	-	None reported
3	IDPs	-	None reported

- People residing in the area have been alerted and are to be ready for evacuations to anticipate any emergency incidents.

Damages

No	Status	Figures	Remarks
1	Public infrastructures	-	No reports of damage
2	Private property	-	No reports of damage

Government Support

- The Indonesian Meteorology and Geophysics board and BAKORNAS have banned crater area off-limits.
- Provincial official warn people to avoid the crater area and socialized to the surrounding people in the area to be calm and on alert.

WHO and MoH Support

PPMK (MoH) in cooperation with EHA (WHO) are maintaining communication.

Map

Geographic location of the Mt. Tangkuban Perahu.

The following person can be contacted if more information is needed.

No	Name	Designation	Organization	Contact phone	Fax	E-mail Satellite Phone
1	Dr. Kyaw Win (Vijay Nath)	Medical Officer	EHA, WHO	021-5204349 0811933821	021-5201164	wink@who.or.id 086811020053
2	Prasetio Wicaksono	Health Information	EHA, WHO	08122793134		wicaksonop@who.or.id

Source of Information from Indonesia

Information is gathered from the following sources and may not reflect the actual true facts at the field level, but can be used as references.

4. PPMK (MoH)
5. Board of Meteorology and Geophysics
6. International and local news media

WHO Indonesia
Emergency and Humanitarian Action (EHA) Section

Emergency Situation Report

Mount Krakatau

Reporting date

Monday, 18 April 2005

Type of Emergency

Increased volcanic activities, level III alert

Date of emergency incidence

Wednesday, 13 April 2005 at 15:02:00 local time

Place

- Mt. Krakatoa is Located in the Sunda Straits, West Java Province
- Mt. Krakatoa (Location is 16.7 S Lat and 105.4 E Lon)

Background information on the incidence

- BAKORNAS and BMG report that volcanic activity have decreased, but is still carefully monitoring the volcano.
- Black smoke still erupting out of Mount Krakatau, although decreasing is still being reported.
- Alert level is still at level II (alert), and is being monitored.
- The Indonesian Meteorology and Geophysics Board still bans the crater area off-limits to all people.

Population at risk

No	Status	Figures	Remarks
1	Casualties or deaths	-	None reported
2	Injured	-	None reported
3	IDPs	-	None reported

- There are no people residing in the area or vicinity but mount Krakatau is tourist attraction site.

Damages

No	Status	Figures	Remarks
1	Public infrastructures	-	No reports of damage
2	Private property	-	No reports of damage

Government Support

- The Indonesian Meteorology and Geophysics board and BAKORNAS has warn people (local and domestic) to avoid the area to anticipate any emergency incidents, avoid the ash fall-out zone around the peak.

WHO and MoH Support

PPMK (MoH) in cooperation with EHA (WHO) are maintaining communication.

Map

Geographic location of the Mt. Krakatau

Photo

The following person can be contacted if more information is needed.

No	Name	Designation	Organization	Contact phone	Fax	E-mail Satellite Phone
1	Dr. Kyaw Win (Vijay Nath)	Medical Officer	EHA, WHO	021-5204349 0811933821	021-5201164	wink@who.or.id 086811020053
2	Prasetio Wicaksono	Health Information	EHA, WHO	08122793134		wicaksonop@who.or.id

Source of Information from Indonesia

Information is gathered from the following sources and may not reflect the actual true facts at the field level, but can be used as references.

7. PPMK (MoH)
8. Board of Meteorology and Geophysics
9. International and local news media