

Biography of Warren Feek

Warren Feek is presently Director of The Communication Initiative, which is a partnership of organisations seeking to support the enhanced impact of communication interventions on development issues - see <http://www.comminit.com> He previously worked at UNICEF New York in a leadership role on health communication [5 years] and prior to that was Programme Director at The Commonwealth Youth Programme in London. He started working life working with young people in New Zealand/Aotearoa. Nationality: New Zealand. He now lives in Canada.