Reproductive, Maternal, Newborn, Child, and Adolescent Health: How can health literacy accelerate the pace of progress?

Katja Iversen, President/CEO of Women Deliver
@Katja_Iversen
How do we Accelerate Progress? 3 key messages

We have to communicate and advocate and do it so that everyone can understand

Bring people together because dialogue is important and we are stronger together

Engage new groups including young people because they are already leaders of today
Download the infographics at womendeliver.org/resources deliver for GOOD

Investments in girls & women power progress for all.
Women Deliver brings people together to rally around proven solutions and action.