

Training Program 2008

Managing Drug Supply in Developing Countries

In cooperation with WHO

This course covers the complete Drug Management Cycle. Course objectives: to expose participants to modern management techniques of drug supply systems and to teach them how to apply them to their own specific situation - to provide practical tools to decision makers in essential drugs programs to improve their level of performance - to encourage the exchange of views and experiences between senior officers and decision makers

Dates & Location 2008

- June 23 - July 5 – The Netherlands - French version
- October 6 – October 18 - The Netherlands - English version

Practical information

- Duration: 2 weeks
- Costs: € 3.600,-

Supply Chain Management of HIV/AIDS Medicines and Supplies

In cooperation with WHO

The course covers the Drug Management Cycle with emphasis on HIV/AIDS Project/Program management. Course objectives: to expose participants to issues specific to planning the procurement and distribution of ARVs - provide program managers with skills in program planning and management - teach participants how to apply those skills in their own country - provide practical tools to decision-makers in essential medicine programs to improve their level of performance - exchange views and experiences between senior decision-makers.

Dates & Location 2008

- November 24 - December 6 – The Netherlands - French version
- South-Africa - English version. Please consult AA4A at www.aa4a.co.za
- In-country – Lusophone version*

The programming of this course is still in progress and will depend on your interest. Please let us know if you are interested by sending an e-mail to training@idasolutions.org

Practical information

- Duration: 2 weeks
- Costs: € 3.600,-
* the fee for the lusophone in-country course will be determined at a later stage

Monitoring and Evaluation of Antiretroviral Procurement and Supply Management Systems

In cooperation with WHO

Course objectives: to discuss the major issues surrounding M&E of ART-PSM systems such as accountability, continuous improvement, sharing of “lessons learnt” and “best practices” – to avoid duplication through encouraging single M&E systems at country and regional levels - to provide practical tools to decision makers and staff working in HIV/AIDS programs to ensure accountability and to improve their level of performance - to encourage the exchange of views and experiences between senior officers and decision makers.

Dates & Location 2008

- March 9 – March 15 – English version
- May 18 – May 24 - French version
- In-country – Lusophone version*

The programming of this course is still in progress and will depend on your interest. Please let us know if you are interested by sending an e-mail to training@idasolutions.org

Practical information

- Duration: 1 week
- Costs: € 2.600,-
* the fee for the lusophone in-country course will be determined at a later stage