

Satellite Session on PMTCT

Sunday 3 August 2008

15:45 to 17:45

Room: SR9

WHO invites you to a satellite

Scaling up comprehensive prevention of mother-to-child transmission programmes: challenges and lessons learned from adapting global recommendations to country situation

Presenters:

1. Emerging evidence in the area of PMTCT and Paediatric HIV and potential implications for WHO guidelines and guidance
*Dr Ying-Ru Lo, Coordinator,
Department of HIV/AIDS, WHO-Geneva*
2. Increasing access of women and children to HIV testing and counselling through introduction of provider initiated testing and counselling (PITC) into antenatal, delivery and postnatal care settings - Experiences from Zambia
*Dr Max Bweupe, PMTCT Programme Manager,
Ministry of Health, Zambia*
3. Phasing in more efficacious ARV regimens for PMTCT in resource-limited settings - Experiences from Rwanda
Élévanie Nyankesha, Head, PMTCT/VCT Department, Treatment and Research AIDS Center, Kigali, Rwanda
4. Operationalizing linkages of PMTCT and sexual and reproductive health service - Experiences from China
Prof Wang Linhong, Professor and Deputy Director of National Center for Women and Children's Health, China CDC
5. Adaptation and use of a guide for counselling mothers living with HIV on infant and young child feeding - Experiences from Guatemala
Ilicia Rebeca García Morales, National coordinator, STD/HIV/AIDS Counselling, Guatemala

Chairpersons

Jimmy Kolker
Chief, HIV and AIDS
Associate Director, Programmes
UNICEF New York

Gloria Sangiwa
Senior Technical Advisor, CT & PMTCT
Technical Director, Children's Initiative
Public Health Programs
Family Health International