

Empowering HIV-positive Women
and their families to demand prevention and treatment for

Malaria

People living with HIV are especially vulnerable to malaria. This workshop will offer the latest information on the most effective treatment and prevention techniques available to poor rural communities.

Venue:

Global Village – Session Hall 1

Date:

Thursday 17 August, 2006

Time:

10:45 – 12:15

Guest appearance by Yvonne Chaka Chaka,
UNICEF Regional Spokesperson for Malaria

Co-Chair:

Louis Da Gama, Global Health Advocates - Massive Effort Campaign; Member
Communities Delegation GFATM Board; Member RBM Global Advocacy Task Force

Co-Chair:

Shaun Mellors, Senior Technical Advisor - Civil Society Development, International
HIV/AIDS Alliance; Member Communities Delegation GFATM Board

Speakers:

Dr Awa Marie Coll-Seck, Executive Secretary, Roll Back Malaria Partnership
The Global Malaria Epidemic – Communities fighting the disease.

Prof. Charles F. Gilks, Coordinator ART & HIV CARE, HIV AIDS Department,
WHO HIV & MALARIA: New evidence & an update on research

Dr Arata Kochi, Director, WHO Global Malaria Programme
Delivering for HIV and malaria through an integrated health system:
Implications of current research

Panelists:

Francoise Ndayishimiye, Member, Communities Delegation, GFATM Board

Richard South, Global Community Partnerships GSK

Pam Das, The Lancet

Lunch will be provided.