Harmful use of alcohol can destroy families, damage the fabric of communities and hinder social development.

The third leading risk factor for global health.

Harmful use of alcohol can destroy families, damage the fabric of communities and hinder social development.

Alcool et société www.who.int/substance_abuse Mental health in development

Rates of common mental health conditions are twice as frequent among poor populations

Integrate mental health into efforts to realize the Millennium Development Goals

Santé mentale et développement

www.who.int/mental_health Mental health in emergencies

Rates of mental disorders tend to double in emergencies

Minimize the impact of disaster and war on mental health

Santé mentale et situations d’urgence

www.who.int/mental_health
www.who.int/hac
75% of people with mental, neurological and substance use disorders are untreated

Scale up care and services to reduce the gap mhGAP : Programme d’action Combler les lacunes en santé mentale