

Replacement feeding in the first 6 months for HIV-infected mothers

After completing this session participants will be able to:

- describe breast-milk substitutes that can be used for replacement feeding
- list foods that are unsuitable in the first six months
- describe how milks can be modified for infant feeding

Replacement feeding is the process of feeding a child who is not breastfeeding with a diet that provides all the nutrients the child needs until the child is fully fed on family food