Technical Workshop on Patient Safety and Care of Acutely Ill Patients: Changing the Paradigm
Friday 22 September 2006, Barcelona

Preliminary Programme

09.00 Welcome: Sir Liam Donaldson, Chair

09:00 - 09:15 Overview of the meeting and introductions Julian Bion, Ken Hillman

Patient Safety: the context for action

9:15 - 09:45 The international agenda for patient safety Liam Donaldson

09:45 - 10:00 IPACS and the challenge of the acutely ill patient Julian Bion

10:00 - 10:15 Discussion

Patient safety and care of acutely ill patients: setting the scene

10:15 - 10:30 The changing role of hospitals Ken Hillman

10:30 - 10:50 Issues for developing & transitional countries Meena Cherian

10:50 -11:30 Morning Coffee & Round Table Discussion I

Patient safety and care of acutely ill patients: understanding the challenges

11:30 - 12:00 Video presentation by Margaret Murphy: Kevin’s story

12:00 - 12:15 Lessons from the MERIT study Richard Lilford

12:15 - 13:00 Round Table Discussion II

13:00 - 14:00 Lunch
Patient safety and care of acutely ill patients: changing behaviour and measuring success

14:00 - 14:15 Lessons from the Surviving Sepsis Campaign: clinical & managerial perspectives
Graham Ramsay

14:15 -14:45 Strategies for changing clinical behaviour and measuring success
Peter Pronovost and Chris Goeschel

14:45 - 15:00 Sustaining long-term change through education
Julian Bion

15:00 - 16:00 Afternoon Tea and Round Table Discussion III

The Way Forward

16:00 – 16:45 Round Table Discussion IV: In what areas can internationally led work add most value to patient safety?

16:45 - 17:00 Summary of Meeting

17:00 Close