Writing

The technical statement was written by Kathryn Curtis, Mary Lyn Gaffield, Kavita Nanda, Sharon Phillips and Chelsea Polis. The four systematic reviews providing summarized evidence for the statement were co-authored by Kathryn Curtis, Philip Hannaford, Kavita Nanda (lead author of the systematic review on interactions between hormonal contraception and antiretroviral therapy), Sharon Phillips (lead author of two systematic reviews: hormonal contraception and progression of HIV disease; and hormonal contraception and risk of female-to-male HIV transmission), Chelsea Polis (lead author of the systematic review on hormonal contraception and risk of HIV acquisition), Elizabeth Raymond, Petrus Steyn, Abigail Norris Turner and Daniel Westreich. The GRADE tables and expertise on GRADE methodology were provided by Roger Chou. Editing by Green Ink, UK (greenink.co.uk).

Funding

The development of this technical statement was financially supported by the NIH, USAID and the CDC.
