B-roll 1

Date: 28 August 2008
Source: World Health Organization, Geneva
Sound: Ambience, Interview
Location: India, Uganda, Bolivia, Mongolia, Afghanistan
Duration: 11:01 mins

This material is strictly under embargo till 10.00 CET 28 August 2008

This video material is being made available to broadcasters free of charge by the World Health Organization for preparing stories related to the launch of the Report of the Social Determinants of Health.

For hi-resolution copies or more information, please contact Sharad Agarwal, Communications Officer, ETH, World Health Organization, agarwals@who.int, ph. +41 22 791 1905, mobile +41.79.621.5286 or visit http://www.who.int/social_determinants/final_report/, username: mediaguest, password: csdhreport

SHOT LIST

Visual related to community action, SEWA, Ahmedabad, India
(See Box 14.9 in Report)

00:03 Women ragpickers at work.

01:13 Woman carrying headloads, working in kitchen, making incense sticks, washing clothes with poor water supply.

02:39 Visuals of the Cooperative Bank of India's Self-Employed Women's Association (SEWA), Ahmedabad, a trade union of over 900 000 self-employed women. Self-employed women who are members of SEWA formed their own bank to safely deposit their savings, take loans and benefit in other ways, freeing them from moneylenders. Ela Behn, founder, conversing with member community women, wide shots of bank counters, woman depositing money, CU money being counted.

04:24 Childcare service provided by SEWA for its members.

05:03 Interview with Mirai Chatterjee, Coordinator of Social Security for SEWA, member, National Advisory Council and the National Commission for the Unorganized Sector in India - 'For our members, work and health are inextricably linked... Health is an economic issue... '

06:18 Interview with Mirai Chatterjee, contd, ' Many people have said to us, what is a Union doing organizing childcare... childcare is poverty reduction in our experience.'

Visuals of daily living conditions:

06:40 Uganda - new born babies
07:19 Bolivia - tilling the ground, potato harvest, cooking, eating
08:34 Mongolia - happy family
09:09 Afghanistan - harsh terrain, women baking bread. Girls in school.
B-roll 2

Date: 28 August 2008
Source: World Health Organization, Geneva
Sound: Ambience
Location: Chad, Vietnam, Southern Africa, India, Brazil, Bangladesh
Duration: 5.46 mins

This material is strictly under embargo till 10.00 CET 28 August 2008

This video material is being made available to broadcasters free of charge by the World Health Organization for preparing stories related to the launch of the Report of the Social Determinants of Health.

For hi-resolution copies or more information, please contact Sharad Agarwal, Communications Officer, ETH, World Health Organization, agarwals@who.int, ph. +41 22 791 1905, mobile +41.79.621.5286 or visit http://www.who.int/social_determinants/final_report/, username: mediaguest, password: csdhreport

SHOT LIST

00:03 Chad - Water seller
01:18 Vietnam - flood streets, homes
01:49 Southern Africa - drains choked with plastic waste
02:09 India - hazardous traffic
03:37 Brazil - heavy traffic
04:27 Bangladesh - slums, makeshifts toilets, houses, people
05:11 Plastic waste dump in city, industrial smoke, traffic pollution, cramped housing.