

World Health Organization

Third Meeting of the Global Initiative for Emergency and Essential Surgical Care (GIEESC)
Ulaan Bataar, Mongolia, 5-6 June 2009

Provisional Agenda

- 1. Opening and welcome of participants
2. WHO GIEESC as a catalyst for health systems strengthening through primary health care
3. WHO GIEESC progress
 - Country projects
 - Follow-up on recommendations GIEESC meeting 2007
 - Current research and publications
 - Training tools
4. Recommendations and action plan 2010-2011
 - Roadmap for WHO GIEESC as a synergizing entity
 - Funding and collaborations
 - Advocacy: Emergency and essential surgical care as a critical component of primary health care.
 - Technology transfer, training tools, and local adaptations
 - Research and effective coordination
- 5. Closure of the meeting