

Summary of World Blood Donor Day 2009 activities carried out in Cuba.

The Ministry of Public Health of Cuba Republic of Cuba carried out a day by the Blood Donor Day, that began on 6 June and it extended until 14 June, with the participation of other sectors and organizations of neighbors, where 15 Provincial acts were carried out (1 per each province) and 30 000 volunteer donors were stimulated, recognized as vanguards in this task, of them 200 at the national level, 3000 at provincial level and with 26 400 at the municipal level.

169 municipal acts were carried out (1 per each municipal health division of the country).

Similarly stimulations were carried out through the delivery of diplomas to 45 000 donors with more than 80 donations, recognition was also carried out to volunteer donors with more than 10 donations, and was carried out stimulus to 4000 Organizations of Territorial Neighbors (OTN) fiftieth anniversary (with more than 50 donations), and to 1000 centennial (with more than 100 voluntary donations).

Were carried out multiple recognitions as delivery of certificates; pullover and other decorations by different contributions in all the acts developed in each municipal health division and was stimulated to the 5000 Areas by its active participation and contribution with the National Program of Blood.