

Violence
seriously
harms
women
physically
and mentally.

Aside from physical injury, women who experience violence are more likely to report generally poor health, suffer from emotional distress and attempt suicide. During pregnancy, intimate partner violence increases the likelihood of miscarriage, stillbirth, pre-term delivery and low birth weight. One in five homicides of women are committed by their intimate partners.

World Health Organization

Western Pacific Region