
ZIKA VIRUS

World Health Organization
Western Pacific Region

Is there treatment?

There is no vaccine or specific drug against the virus.

Patients with symptoms of Zika infection should:

Get plenty of bed rest

Treatment consists of relieving pain and fever

Use insect repellant as recommended by health authorities

Wear clothing that covers arms and legs

Use screens or mosquito nets in windows and doors to reduce contact with mosquitoes

Drink plenty of liquids

If symptoms worsen, consult a doctor