

Strategic Partners' Initiative for Data and Digital Health

---

AGENDA (v.3)

13 June 2024

The Strategic Partners' Initiative for Data and Digital Health (SPI-DDH) is a multi-stakeholder collaboration network created at the request of the Member States of the WHO European Region and led by the WHO Regional Office for Europe.

The SPI-DDH identifies and addresses issues of public health relevance to the digital transformation of health systems to achieve the goal that all people are enabled to attain the highest possible level of health and benefit from safe, affordable, and person-centred care delivered digitally.
