Rohingya Crisis

- Violence in the Rakhine State of Myanmar erupted on 25th August 2017 driving more than 650,000 Rohingya people across the border into Cox’s Bazaar, Bangladesh.

- Total refugee population is now 865,230

- People are living in makeshift settlements in flood-prone areas and are dependent entirely on humanitarian assistance

- The speed and scale of the influx resulted in a humanitarian crises
THANK YOU

Save the Children