JUNE 1, 2005

THE WHO - CIPIH OPEN FORUM

EXECUTIVE BOARD ROOM, WHO

SEEKING SOLUTIONS: DEVELOPING NEW TREATMENTS AND IMPROVING ACCESS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Session</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 08:30 - 9:00 | MODERATOR: DR. JEAN LARIVIERE
(CIPIH COMMISSIONERS WILL BE PRESENT) |
| 9:00 - 10:30 | SESSION 1: THE BURDEN OF DISEASE AND R&D PRIORITIES
What are the current trends in terms of the global burden of disease and how should they inform R&D and financing priorities?
Panel: Bernard Pecoul, DnDi, Paul Herrling, NOVARTIS |
| 30 min      | Break                                                               |
| 11:00 - 12:30| SESSION 2: IP, R&D AND ACCESS
How does the IP system affect R&D and access and how might national patent systems need to change?
Panel: Jamie Love, CPTech Tenu Avafia, TRALAC Gill Samuels, Pfizer |
| 1 Hour      | LUNCH BREAK                                                        |
| 13:30 - 15:00| SESSION 3: HOW BEST TO PROMOTE INNOVATION FOR PUBLIC HEALTH
Are there new ideas to stimulate innovation and promote access, and to improve the process of R&D for therapeutics?
Panel: Wanjiku Kamau, IPM Harvey Bale, IFPMA Mary Moran, LSE |
| 30 min      | Break                                                               |
| 15:30 - 17:00| SESSION 4: POLICIES TO BUILD INNOVATIVE CAPACITY
How best can policies in developing countries be adapted to support relevant innovation?
Panel: Sir Michael Rawlins, NICE Carlos Morel, FIOCRUZ |
| 17:00       | CONCLUDING REMARKS: DR. LARIVIERE                                   |

Penultimate Draft - some changes may take place