35% of under-five deaths are due to the presence of undernutrition*

[Diagram showing major causes of death in neonates and children under five]

- Prematurity and low birth weight: 29%
- Birth asphyxia and birth trauma: 23%
- Neonatal infections: 25%
- Other: 12%
- Neonatal tetanus: 2%
- Diarrhoeal diseases: 2%
- Congenital anomalies: 8%
- Pneumonia: 13%
- Malaria: 9%
- Diarrhoeal diseases (postneonatal): 14%
- Injuries (postneonatal): 3%
- Other: 13%
- HIV/AIDS: 2%
- Measles: 1%