Checking understanding and arranging follow-up

After completing this session participants will be able to:

• demonstrate how to ensure that a mother understands information provided by using checking questions

• arrange referral or follow-up of a child