Biography
Darius Sivin is an industrial hygienist with the International Union, UAW, which represents over 1 million active and retired workers in a wide variety of industries. He is a member of the Chemical Substances Threshold Limit Value (CS-TLV) Committee of the American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists (ACGIH), and he has served as a Governing Counselor of the American Public Health Association. From 2009 to 2010 Dr Sivin acted as a subgroup chair for the Chemical Emergencies Work Group of the National Conversation on Public Health and Chemical Exposures.

Dr Sivin has testified before the U.S. Congress regarding the safety of chemical facilities. He has given several conference presentations on protecting workers from the potential adverse effects of nanotechnology.