Presenting the work of the Alliance for Health promotion on health and environment and the newly launched WHO Civil Society Working Group on Climate Change and Health, aimed at strengthening WHO-NGO collaboration to drive progress on addressing climate change and protecting and promoting health.
COLLABORATING TO DRIVE PROGRESS ON CLIMATE CHANGE & HEALTH

Programme:
Moderation by Dr. Diarmid Campbell-Lendrum, WHO

Welcome Remarks by Alliance for Health Promotion, President Bernard Kadasia

Welcome Remarks by Dr. Naoko Yamamoto, ADG, WHO

Presentation by Dr H. Paramesh, Director Lakeside Center for Health Promotion, Distinguished Scientist Divecha Center for Climate Change, Indian Institute of Science Campus, Bangalore, India
Mitigating the effects of Climate Change on Health

Global Climate & Health Alliance, Jeni Miller
Vision and plan of work, WHO-Civil Society Working Group on Climate Change & Health.

Message from the UN Special Rapporteur on Children's Rights

Youth NGO representative
The role of youth in driving change.

Svetlana Akselrod, head of the GCM/UNIATF Secretariat, co-chair of the WHO Civil Society working group

Q&A

Closing Remarks Dr. Maria Neira, PHE Director, WHO

WHA72 side event | 24 May, 18:00–18:50, Room IX
Organized by the Global Climate and Health Alliance and Alliance 4 Health Promotion