Lost opportunities for prevention of mother-to-child transmission of HIV (MTCT) in Côte d’Ivoire: only a tiny fraction of the expected transmissions are actually prevented.

462 mother-to-child transmissions of HIV (expected among 11,582 pregnant women)

450 failures to prevent transmission