Transforming information systems into instruments for PHC reform

From

Ministry of health

Monitor routine data on:
- morbidity
- resource usage
- service production

Information flowing upwards within the public sector hierarchy

To

Multiple users, producers and stakeholders

Scope

- Produce intelligence to understand challenges
- Monitor performance towards social objectives
- Identify system constraints

Open knowledge networks with multiple collaborating institutions; transparency essential

Architecture