Nepal

Nepal reported good performance in scaling up health worker education and training. It has also established an HRH information system. It could improve further in terms of HRH planning, coordination, retention strategies and by increasing investment in HRH.